

SAMARTH SAARTHI SAMUH HANDICRAFT EXHIBITION

Here are some quotes from the talented NDDP mothers-

"I felt happy beyond words to be a part of the exhibition. The encouragement and appreciation my work received made me realize my capabilities and strengthened my belief in my potential."

- Soni Devi

"I consider myself fortunate to get such an opportunity. When I learned that so many people had appreciated my handicrafts, it greatly boosted my self-confidence. My children are also thrilled. They sing my praises all over the neighborhood and among their friends. I am grateful to Newgen CSR for everything."

- Ragini Devi

"I had always longed to engage myself in constructive work but could not understand what to do. NDDP sessions for mothers gave me the courage, confidence, and desire to achieve something. Previously, the handicrafts I created were only used to decorate my house, or sometimes I gave them away as gifts. I never anticipated that people would like to buy them. It was an unbelievable experience."

- Swati

"NDDP enabled me to step out, explore, and learn new things. I now feel significantly more confident and fortunate. My family is delighted and proud of me. With NDDP's continued support and guidance, I want to create and sell more handicrafts"

- Nayanbindu Devi

"I look forward to the NDDP digital education sessions to learn more about operating digital devices. NDDP's skill development sessions have instilled a newfound confidence in me, empowering me to create crochet handicrafts and display them for sale. The online and offline sessions have supported me in numerous ways and unveiled my hidden talents, which were unknown even to my husband. My family was pleased, and my husband appreciated my talent for the first time."

- Meena Devi

"NDDP and Priyadarshini ma'am have inspired me to overcome my apprehension and do something in life. I am a trained beautician, and previously, I only created crochet handicrafts on demand. However, NDDP made me realize I can use my handicraft skills to earn a livelihood. I attend all the skill development sessions regularly. These sessions have given me a ray of hope and motivated me to create and sell my handicrafts. I am thankful to the Newgen CSR team for everything."
