

SAMARTH SAARTHI SAMUH Mother's Craft Exhibition

ANECDOTES FROM OUR SPECIAL GUESTS

*The NDDP Mother's Craft Exhibition, organized by Newgen CSR, provided a crucial platform for NDDP mothers to showcase their talents. The exhibition also offered an excellent opportunity for Newgenites to acknowledge and appreciate the skills of the mothers. The displayed crafts and paintings were not only highly impressive but also inspiring. All the mothers looked thrilled to be a part of this journey. Such endeavors are crucial for promoting social inclusion. Great effort by the CSR Team for organizing this event and contributing towards the society. - Shikha Bhatt, API

Being a part of the NDDP Crafts Exhibition 2023 was a vivid reminder of the boundless creativity surrounding us. Witnessing the intricate handmade items and the immense talent of the women creators was genuinely inspiring. Their dedication not only enriched our homes but also our hearts. I am delighted to have experienced this event and supported such gifted artisans.

- Deepika Dutta Kapoor, Genesis 2

*The handmade creations by the mothers of NDDP beneficiaries were delightful. The sense of achievement and pride on their faces added to the satisfaction of the event. Some moms shared their challenges, expressing a desire to do more despite their busy schedules. I feel that we can all contribute to their success by giving them ideas on the latest trends and equipping them with the necessary tools. Glad to be a part of the event! - Vibha Jain, DLSC

*The exhibition was a unique experience. I got to see many vibrant works. The way the creations were organized and displayed was very impressive. It was touching to hear the story of the participating artists. The support that Newgen and Priya ma'am are giving this initiative is much appreciated. Best wishes to the artists for their future endeavors! - Renu Gupta